

Table: Accounts in Aggregated Version of Brazil SAM, 1995-96.

Activities (15)	Commodities (24)
Agriculture (9)
Annuals (2)*	Corn, Rice, Beans, Manioc, Sugarcane, Soy, Horticultural Products, Other Annuals
Perennials (2)*	Coffee, Cocoa, Other Perennials
Livestock (2)*	Milk, Livestock, Poultry
Other Agriculture (2)*	Other Agricultural Products
Forestry	Extractivist Forest Products, Logging, Deforestation
Industry (3)
Food Processing	Processed food
Mining and Oil	Mining and oil
Industry	Industrial products
Services (3)
Construction	Construction
Trade and Transportation	Trade and Transportation
Services	Services
* Disaggregated by small- and large-holders
Commodities are produced by activities on the same row.
Factors (18)
Labor (12)	Urban (10) -- disaggregated by skill level and sector of employment Rural (2) -- disaggregated by skill level
Capital (3)	Agricultural (2) -- disaggregated by holder size Non-agricultural (1)
Land (3)	Arable (1) Grassland (1) Forested (1)
* The sectors coincide with the non-agricultural activities except for that "trade and transportation" and "services" are treated as one sector.
Institutions (8)
Households (5)	Poor and Medium-Income Rural (2) and Urban (2); High Income (1)
Enterprises (1)
Government
Rest of the World

Note: In addition to the 65 accounts listed above, the SAM includes three tax accounts [for tariffs, (other) indirect taxes, direct taxes], accounts for aggregate institutional savings-investment and stock changes, and a total account.